Oysterfest went very well this year, Friday night really helped in selling all the very expensive crab (which we did!). Attendance over all seemed to be down this year but we sold our last crabwich about 10 minutes to 5 on Sunday. The refrigerator we bought worked well and we even had a warmer thanks to Bill Slining. Even nicer the container was only a short distance away when it was time to put everything away!

I'm not sure we will be able to do this again next year if the price of crab goes up again. We sold out but only made about $500 more than last year when we had crab left over. Time will tell.

It's almost time for winter warbirds again. Hopefully we will get good weather for the event
